Professional Work Experience

President

National Partnership for Community Leadership (NPCL), Washington, DC June 1996-Present

NPCL is a nonprofit intermediary organization that provides training, technical assistance, project management, and evaluation services to public and private agencies seeking to strengthen families with children on public assistance. NPCL's particular expertise is developing community partnerships that result in long-term healthy connections among parents and children.

As President, my duties and responsibilities are:

- Planning, coordination, and fundraising with the Board of Directors
- Serve as chief executive of the organization
- Serve as the primary point of contact for new business opportunities and contracts
- Supervise staff
- Serve as a senior trainer, technical assistance advisor, project management consultant, and evaluation consultant on various projects

- Serve as the primary contact in external communications with key stakeholders, including community leaders, policymakers, and the media
- Prepare reports on the budget and management-related documents for the board of directors
- Oversee the planning of annual conferences
